THE 1968 GROWLER IS

Dedicated to . . .

At a Friday afternoon pep rally before a big game, TSHS students prove to the boys that they are behind them all the way with that "Old Bulldog Spirit!"

THE POWER TO INSPIRE

For making this school year one of the best yet at TSHS; for lending your support to all activities that make up the fun, fellowship and learning at TSHS; for cooperating with each other to build a better atmosphere in which to live, work and learn; and for displaying that "Bulldog Spirit" that TSHS is famous for, we dedicate this GROWLER to you, the Student Body of Thomasville Senior High School and to the person who we feel has done more to inspire his students and instill the "Bulldog Spirit" throughout the entire Student Body, Mr. Wayne Shadrick.

Foreword

Youth is on the move. This fast pacing generation is constantly driving onward and upward discovering new realms of life and attaining its goals only to set new and better ones. The search for answers to our questions is an endless one. We journey far in life, often stumbling, but always returning to this basic knowledge we absorb in our studies and everyday relations at school.

During this speeding time that we strive for knowledge of our fellow man, we learn, through the experiences encountered, how we move step by step into the future.

Yes, we demand action; always looking for the times and places where we might find it while engaged in attaining our goals. During this time of growing up, maturing, and finding ourselves we find that we must move so that we will not be left behind. We find these daily actions becoming a big part of our lives — classes, friends, fellowship, games, dances, clubs, sadness, happiness, and a spirit uniting the entire student body, not as Sophomores, Juniors, and Seniors, but as ONE.

This is TSHS on the Go!

Students Display That Bulldog Spirit by Proving

TSHS students prove with their spirit that "T-ville's Tops and We Can Do!"

Spirit also runs high among the Bulldogs as they prove that they also are "On the Go!"

In order to keep "On the Go," every Sophomore has to have a Senior to lean on.

Insane from the noise and hub-bub of the construction work outside her room, Mrs. Martin is driven to drastic measures to hurry up the completion of the new building in displaying her "Bulldog Spirit."

TSHS is on the Go

With the persistent chant of "GO, GO, GO" the cheerleaders and fans prove to the Bulldogs that they are behind them 100%.

It is the attention from one who appreciates us that keeps us "On the Go."

Mills Home students join in the fun and fellowship each afternoon at 3:15 before their bus leaves the parking lot.

With Coach Cushwa at the wheel, our Dogs are still raring and ready to go after one of Thomasville's biggest victories.

We Share all the Good Times

As the year moves on, each experience we share throughout school life becomes a precious memory.

Working together is a big part of the fun when it comes to proving the student's pride in TSHS.

That Make This Year Special

Spirit runs high before football games as TSHS's Bulldog fans and "Curley" Miller join in the fun of Friday morning hall pep rallies sponsored by Fulp's Fearless Fighting Furies.

"They're from T-ville and we couldn't be prouder," to have the Class of '68 and TSHS represented by such two great animals as Baby Huey and our Bulldog mascot.

Everyone shares that true Dixie spirit at games and in all campus activities.

To prove that "Our Spirit Is the Greatest," class unity prevailed in the nine-hour Marathon Pep Rally at the big chair.

"Devil's Angels?" No. It's just four spirited Bulldog fans preparing to lead the Baby Huey parade to prove that TSHS is behind our Dogs, win or lose!

TSHS Discovers

This year has been one year in the life of all TSHS students that will never be forgotten; not because any earth-shattering records have been broken or some great mysterious happening has occurred. It will not be forgotten because this year we have learned what unity means. We know now that through teamwork and giving unselfishly of ourselves, TSHS has grown in ways that are not necessarily physical. Learning to laugh together when the going gets rough, pretending not to care, but deep inside knowing that by exerting a little "Bulldog Spirit" those "impossible" things really are quite small, is all a part of this new unity. Shouting and clowning around with each other every day made the school year more special. And through all this sharing, the students became closer. No longer were there three distinct classes; only one body of some of the greatest students to be found anywhere!

True "Brotherly Love" is displayed just before the crowning of the 1967 Powder Puff King.

Ricky just can't seem to get over all the good food served at the August planning session of the Student Council. This meeting is held in order to set goals and make plans for the coming school year for all TSHS students.

This is the beautiful sight that all Bulldog fans love to see after a hard-fought game that proves our Dogs are "On the Go!"

Importance of Class Unity

This is a typical scene every afternoon when that final bell rings and there is no class distinction throughout the campus of TSHS, for all Sophmores, Juniors, and Seniors alike head for the parking lot at 3:15.

Engaged in a battle of wits between the Federalist and National Parties, Susan Allen and Marian Dove demonstrate an active phase of Girls' State.

An active interest in the modern world is one of the reasons that Danny Clodfelter, Charles Kenerley and Clavie Cranford are candidates for the Morehead Scholarship.

TSHS Students Merit Honors

From the halls of TSHS come many students who have merited high honors. Among these are the Girls' State representatives, the Morehead Scholarship entries, and the DAR citizenship awardee.

In addition to these students, there are those who seek to broaden their education by going to school in the summer, a sacrifice for anyone.

Whether they are developing high standards of citizenship, reaping the benefits from a scholarly career, or seeking broadened enlightenment, these students will represent our school well.

In the wheel of fortune, these young people will succeed.

They are a crucial part of the TSHS ON THE GO.

Terri Price, recipient of the DAR Citizenship Award realizes that a knowledge of citizenship qualities is based on a study of past government tactics.

Summer school students are Terry Bird, Brian Jasperse, Clavie Cranford, Polly Collett, Suzanne Carlton, Georgette Foster, Sharon Fritts, Nancy Leonard, Mike Stilwell, and Charles Gilliam. All studied at Wake Forest or Western Carolina with the exception of Clavie Cranford, who studied electronics at the University of Virginia and Charles Gilliam, who studied anthropology at Mount Herman, Massachusetts.

Marshals, Symbol of Intellectual Proficiency

Intellectual advancement has become a vital standard of Thomasville High School. It is through this achievement that students are able to cope with learning on a higher level.

Garbed in the traditional red and black ribbons, the twelve marshals wear the symbol of intellectual proficiency at TSHS. The girls, wearing white dresses, and the boys, wearing dark suits, present a dignified and discreet scene.

Their first and immediate duty was to serve as ushers during the spring commencement exercises. When the school year began the marshals were given another duty, serving as ushers during P.T.A. meetings.

With these students representing our school, we can certainly have a feeling of pride and respect for them and for TSHS.

Danny Clodfelter, Chief Marshal, maintains a working unity among the marshals.

Acting a courteous hostess, Polly Collett registers parents.

Dear Mrs. Cameron;

I have selected Julia Burwell as the "All-American Girl." Her essay on life was sensitive and thoughtful. She sounds like a young lady who has firm convictions and high standards. Julia's concept that a life of service is truly rewarding lines up with my own philosophy and perhaps this is why I selected her.

My congratulations to all the contestants. Each and every one was worthy of the honor and they are all extremely attractive. My warm, good wishes to Julia Burwell and heartiest congratulations to her.

Sincerely,

Homecoming Queen, 1967-68

Miss Marian Dove

The Homecoming Queen candidates for 1967-68 were Sharon Fritts, Julia Burwell, Marian Dove, Terri Price and Judy Teer.

October 13 marked this year's annual Homecoming for the alumni of Thomasville Senior High School. Before the eyes of 4,000 spectators, the TSHS Bulldogs defeated the Albemarle team.

During the half time of this victorious game, the Bulldogs rendered the spotlight to the crowning of the Homecoming Queen. Prior to the game, five Senior girls were nominated as candidates for the title. Elected by the student body, the new queen was Miss Marian Laverne Dove.

Accepting the crown with a look of radiance, Marian is a true example of the spirit of TSHS.

Miss Davidson County Entry

Miss Terri Price

Chosen by a panel of students and teachers, Miss Diane Conrad, an attractive senior, was our Miss Merry Christmas Entry. Judged with regard to beauty and poise, she and four other contestants gave spontaneous answers to questions rapidly asked by the panel. For her talent presentation, Diane sang "I want To Be Free" and "Tomorrow," one of her original compositions.

Characterized by personality and poise, Diane well represented Thomasville High in the area competition in Lexington.

This year Miss Terri Price was chosen by the faculty to represent Thomasville Senior High School in the Miss Davidson County contest, which is held in October at the Davidson County Fair. Beauty, poise and an extremely active interest in her school are a few of the many qualifications Terri possessed in order to gain this honor.

Though Terri did not win, she did an excellent job of portraying TSHS Youth On the Go.

The Beginning of End and End of Beginning

"We've got the strength, we've got the might, we're gonna win this game tonight 'cause we're the SENIORS! SENIORS! SENIORS!"

Seniors know that this is the end of their secondary school life; the end of the beginning. They look back and think about all the wonderful things they have done and all the good times they have had. This class anticipates the beginning of a new and exciting experience.

Our seniors, the Class of '68, have done a wonderful job leading the student body throughout the entire school year. They are embarking on a new journey, taking with them knowledge gained during the past twelve years. They are leaving behind them many accomplishments; they have affected TSHS profoundly. They are leaving a deep impression that proves that TSHS seniors are "All Right Up Tight!"

Senior Class mascots, Lori Anne Allen and John Scott, fit not only into lockers but into all special senior activities.

'68 Superlatives

No one person excels in everything, but certain people are noted around TSHS for their different accomplishments. These people have gained the admiration of their fellow students and were thus selected as superlatives.

Selecting superlatives was not an easy task to undertake for the Senior Class this year. There were nominations, voting, and revoting; but, finally, the honors were bestowed upon twenty-eight members of the Senior Class.

These twenty-eight students are naturally the "cream of the crop" at TSHS and are admired and respected by everyone.

"Curse you Red Baron" screams Ricky Kanoy as he bails out of Sally Beck's wounded Sopwith Camel, displaying the characteristics which earn them the title of Wittiest.

You may look the world over but it is doubtful that you could find two more well rounded people as Preston Cranford and Terri Price, Best-All-Round.

Portray Our Best

You can always depend upon Ronnie Crowder and Julia Burwell for something — it may be robbing the school — but anyway, they are Most Dependable.

Susan Allen and Clavie Cranford are "forever blowing bubbles" as they are absorbed in perfecting the art of bubble-blowing as Most Intellectual.

"One more word out of you, you dirty rat, and I'll . . ." Amelia Sisk and Tommy Baity, Best Sports, are always agreeable and compatible with everyone they meet.

"And when we get through here, we get to mop the floor . . ." Danny Clodfelter and Marian Dove already show signs of being the two people who are Most Likely To Succeed.

"And 1-2-3, hand over head, bend your knees, you're doing fine, and 1-2-3 . . . ." Mary McLain encourages Steve McCulloch to practice so they will maintain their title as Best Dancers.

Caught in an off moment, Angie Allison and Jeff Hege shatter their image as Neatest.

"Keep that up and you'll be another Charles Atlas in no time", says Eddie Williamson to Martha Culler, Most Athletic.

The beauty of the out-of-doors seems to enhance the attractiveness of Best Looking, Gene Vaughn and Sharon Fritts.

It is plain to see that as Most Popular, Bruce Mills and Debby Sykes need an answering service.

Senior Leaders Spark Successful Year

Being a superlative may be the dream of every senior but being a TSHS Senior certainly is the dream of every student. A senior represents leadership and a quality of character unknown in any other class. Being a senior means having responsibilities and reaping the rewards of this responsibility.

Our Class of 1968 may be small but its accomplishments will long be remembered.

Their enthusiasm at athletic events and their support of all athletic teams helped boost the spirit of the entire school. Their Baby Huey Club Parades were bigger and better than ever.

Their support could really be seen when they led everybody in contributions to the love fund. They gave $120.00 to the fund which far surpassed the amount given by juniors or sophomores.

Excelling scholastically is a trait of this class; producing some of the greatest minds yet to come from TSHS. It takes twelve long years of hard work to become a senior. And then to be remembered it takes that little bit of something extra that this class of '68 truly has.

Most talented, Diane Conrad and Phil Christman, display their talent and love for music.

Ability, Leadership, Responsibility Characterize Juniors

Junior Class Advisors are Mrs. Robert Martin, Mrs. Detra Morrison, Mrs. Jeanne Haney, Miss Emma Williams. STANDING: Mrs. Eva Nell Dorsett, Mr. Leighton Hilton.

Juniors often find certain subjects very hard, but with Howard Bumbgardner's brilliant mind he finally sees the light!

"Don't try to tell a junior that there are 60 minutes in an hour — there couldn't be with 30 hours in a day!" You can always recognize a junior as he runs through the halls every morning with that "ooh-ah" of TSHS.

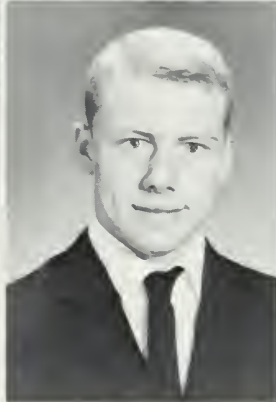

"What color are you getting?" "What size is yours?" These are the questions heard in October after orders are placed for classrings — the symbol of the Junior Class.

Striving to boost the unity of the Junior Class, juniors carry out numerous projects and activities throughout the year.

Their enthusiasm was characterized by the annual magazine sale. They broke all records since 1965, exceeding their goal of $4,000. This money goes to finance the highlight of their year — the Junior-Senior Prom. Juniors break their backs working days and nights, often giving up valuable study hours to give the seniors the best Junior-Senior Prom ever!

Big Senior Dogs, middle-sized Junior Dogs, and itsy-bitsy Sophomore Pups all unite in proving that the spirit of Thomasville Senior High School students is the GREATEST!

Sophomores Become Part of a Three Year Adventure

Sophomore Class Advisors are, SITTING: Mrs. Judith Dolle, Miss Eloise Buie, Mrs. Aileen Myers, Mrs. M. G. Almond. STANDING: Mr. Wilburn Everhart, Mr. Kent Willard, Mr. Larry Younts.

Traditional ribbing of "lost" sophomores, while perhaps over-worked, is not totally unfounded. They are suddenly faced with the mysteries of myriads of new subjects, new schedules, and new scholastic demands.

With the help of understanding teachers, and gradual self-acclimation, the daze wears off. Sophomores fit into the school's academic life and extra-curricular activities with ease and enthusiasm.

This is evident by their display of posters for football and basketball games. They have rallied our spirit by their support at pep rallies and all school functions. They have also proved their scholastic abilities by making up a large percent of the honor roll.

The class of 1970 has begun its drive to be the most capable future leaders of Thomasville Senior High School.

Senior boys show no mercy to meek sophomore girls, especially during Twirp Week.

SPIRIT ...BY-WORD OF ALL BULLDOGS

The 1967-68 TSHS marching band perpetuates a proud tradition as it lives up to high standards of excellence.

Beauty and Talent Characterize

One of the major functions of our band is its performance as a marching unit. Many times during the year the band is called on to perform at various gatherings, the highlight of which is the beautiful pageantry of the halftime shows presented at all home football games. And, of course, a football game wouldn't seem complete without the stirring national anthem performed by our marching band.

Contributing in an important way are the young men of the color guard. One young man who really works hard with Mr. Litwin to line up marching performances is the drum major, Bob Hinkle.

Stern and tall, Bob Hinkle, drum major for 1967-68 leads our band during its beautiful half-time performances.

Oops! Keeping his shako on and looking composed at the same time presented a challenge for Bob.

The stern looks on the faces of these young men: Mike Styers, Johnny Lawing, Brent Litwin, Phil Bean, and Steve Madison indicate the importance of their task as the 1967-68 Color Guard.

The free time of TSHS majorettes is consumed in rigorous drills and practice sessions after school and on weekends.

Pretty Sharon Fritts, chief majorette, leads TSHS high-steppers.

Pageantry of TSHS Band and Majorettes

Adding color and beauty to all of the band's marching engagements are seven lovely, talented majorettes. Under the skillful guidance of chief, Sharon Fritts, these girls work hard preparing intricate routines involving careful co-ordination in timing and rhythm for each engagement. When spectators are huddled in the stands watching a football game or parade, these young ladies brave the bitter cold with bright smiles and beautiful routines. Hours of hard work characterize this group of girls as they represent TSHS proudly.

Nancy Ward, Swanee Ward, Sharon Fritts (chief), Diane Conrad, Ellen Spoolman, Maureen Schneider, and Polly Collett are the talented and attractive 1967-68 TSHS majorettes.

Hard Practice and Diligence Make the Dedication and talent characterize our band director, Mr. Litwin.

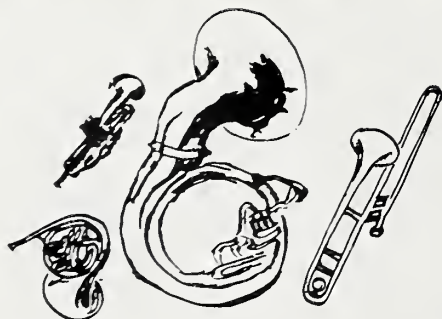

Our band's renown as an excellent unit brings invitations from many outstanding festivals each year.

Any unit as large as our band is made up of several integral parts, all striving for the success of the whole. This is true of the TSHS band. Woodwind, brass, percussion, major-ettes, drum major, color guard, and an excellent director—all go together to make up a great high school band. Sixth period everyday brings together this talented, hard-working segment of "on the go" students skilled in music. Long hours of practice and just plain hard work result in a good performance—gratifying both to performers and audience.

At last the close of the day has come, and with it comes the end of band practice. The students eagerly put their instruments UP!

1967-68 Version of TSHS Band Successful

One of our band's many opportunities to demonstrate its talent to the community was the Christmas parade. The beauty of sound and color the TSHS band contributed to the parade bore witness to the hours of practice that went into the performance.

These five young men bear our colors proudly as they precede the band on the field to open each home football game.

Countless Memories of Band Are Priceless

Members of the Percussion Section are: Collett, Perryman, Cranford, Bowers, Gordon, Anderson, Boyles, Crowder.

Someone became a little over zealous in pounding that big drum; right, Jackie?

High school life is a time for amassing lasting, precious memories. One never forgets the fun or the hard work.

This is true of our band. Three years of hard practice and close association with fellow-band members result in the formation of a close-knit fraternity. Ninety students with a common interest and talent in music become fast friends after years of practicing and traveling together. Certainly no segment of our student body is together as much as is our band. The antics and hilarity of the group endear their memory to the student body. The memories of the fun they've had while they worked will be some of the most precious memories of high school life—a time they'll never forget.

Band members know that practice makes perfect, and their expressions show that they've had plenty today. They're all thinking, "Oh well, just one more for the photographer!"

Happiness for Ricky Kanoy is bagging a fine rabbit. Perhaps Rick would not be quite so happy if he knew that Ronnie Bailey's rifle barrel was pointed nonchalantly at his head!

T'ville teamwork is in evidence as these members of the Sportsman's Club help clean the school grounds.

Safety in Sports Comes to TSHS in Formation of Sportsman's Club

Can you clean a gun, make a duck blind, or explain the parts of a rod and reel? The members of TSHS's Sportsman's Club can master any one of these skills and more. Their advisor, Mr. Willard helps the boys with the fascinating study of living with nature as a sportsman. To enjoy sports such as fishing, hunting, and boating one must understand the correct procedure for operating sports equipment. Thus, the ultimate aim of the Sportsman's Club becomes: "To add excitement to learning the safer way to enjoy good times."

Experts in the art of rod and reel are officers: Eddie Williamson, Secretary; Ronnie Bailey, Vice President; Mac Childers, Pete Knight, Sergeants-at-Arms; and Max Rollins, President.

A skit is dramatized by the club in an assembly program to introduce TSHS students to the various clubs.

What Makes Our World Click?

Clavie Cranford is not really interviewing Jim Hill; they are conducting an experiment in sound.

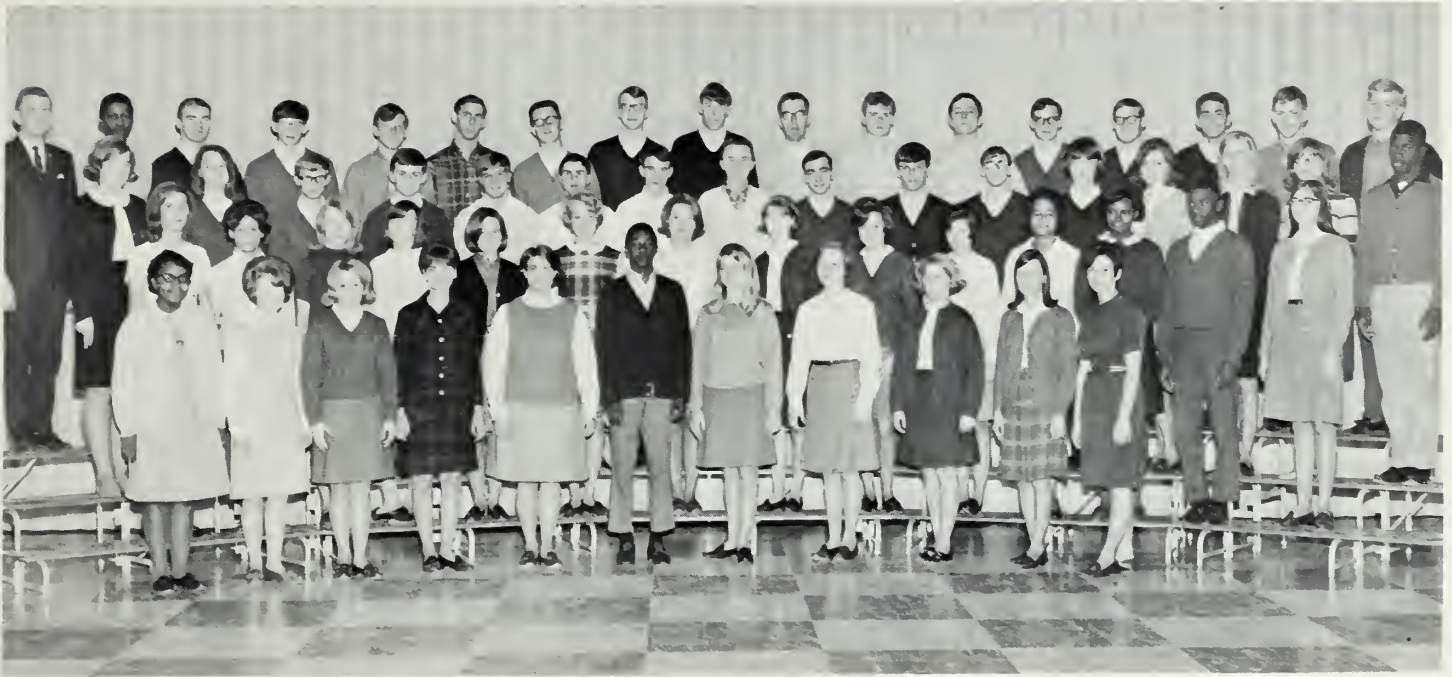

What makes our world click? This question supplied the initiative for a group of scientifically minded students at TSHS when they began a Science Club in our school. One of many new ideas in our extra-curricular program has been the beginning of special interest groups. Under the capable guidance of Mrs. Tice, these students tackle the problems in the world of physical science. Operating on the principle two heads are better than one, they multiplied the effect to involve 45 students. Through projects, reports, field trips, and bull sessions, they explore the world of science collectively—learning from and adding to the knowledge and opinions of fellow-students. Perhaps these future scientists will make some dramatic break-through in the scientific world as a result of the stimulation provided in the Science Club.

Officers, John Lawing, Corresponding Secretary; John Black, Treasurer; Ronnie Crowder, Vice President; Clavie Cranford, President; and Brenda Allen, Secretary brush up on Scientific knowledge.

Fine Arts Club Stimulates Interest in “Finer Things of Life”

Genuine interest in culture and the finer things of life led to the formation of the Fine Arts Club which instantly became one of the largest clubs in our extra-curricular program. The interest in this club was so great that the turnout for membership quite overwhelmed the advisor, Mrs. Morrison. Because of the large number of students interested, it was decided to divide them into three interest groups: Art, Music, and Drama; thus, a brand-new club received enough attention to allow it to be split three ways.

On the agenda for the year are concerts, plays, and other things of cultural value. By exposure to these things, this segment of our “on the go” student body enriches our high school community—a contribution truly worthy of praise.

Fine Arts Club members portray the various phases of the club on club day in September.

Danny Clodfelter, President, points out the different phases of the club to his enthusiastic officers: Tim Smith, Chaplain; Celia Hooper, Vice President; Barbara Poppe, Treasurer; and Robert Adams, Secretary.

Songs of TSHS Chorus Fill the Heights With Music

TSHS stands out in many areas, but one of the most outstanding phases of any school's activities is the musical ability of the students. This is another area of excellence at TSHS.

Under the direction of Miss Montgomery, the chorus strives to develop the musical talent of the school. Through the chorus, students learn the proper way to lift their voices in song. Reading notes, learning new types of songs, and performing in and out of school are just a few of the things members of the chorus receive experience in doing. The chorus meets during school time, and the students receive a unit credit for their class participation.

A fine organization with praiseworthy accompanist and dedicated leadership is the TSHS chorus.

Without the skill and dexterity of the pianist, Debby Sykes, the chorus would not be the success it is.

TSHS Chorus members brave the discomforts of a cold practice room to lift their voices in song.

Miss Montgomery's vivacity and enthusiasm lift the chorus to greater heights.

Co-ordination of TSHS "On the Go" Credited to Co-operation is the word which best describes the successful co-ordination of TSHS's many clubs. This co-operation is the result of the work of a special club in our school —The Presidents Club. Every club's president is a member of this club. The purpose of this unique club is to balance and smooth out the year's activities so that major projects don't conflict. In providing this invaluable service to the school, these students take time out from their already-busy schedules to meet and iron out difficult problems. Through this club, there is communication between clubs. Under the capable guidance of co-ordinator, Bobby Joe Bates, the results of these communications are analyzed and recorded for the benefit not only of this year's Presidents' Club but for future use as well.

Presidents Club

Beverly Harris, Clavie Cranford, and Bobby Hinkle, members of the Presidents Club, are practicing for their duty—balancing and co-ordinating all of the TSHS "on the go" activities.

The co-ordination of TSHS clubs depends on Bobby Joe Bates. His job is to set up a student calendar and avoid conflicts.

"Honest! I'm not looking!" says impartial Ronnie Crowder about his campaign poster.

Pitching in to keep our school on the go are the Student Council officers Bobby Joe Bates, Vice President; Marian Dove, Secretary; Charles Kenerley, Treasurer; and Preston Cranford, President.

School Spirit and Hard Work

Throughout the school year, behind every successful project and working hard to make this school year the best ever, was the Student Council. Back-breaking, time-consuming work characterized the year's activities for this busy, school-spirited organization. From the very beginning of the school year, the Student Council has been on the go, ready and willing when there is a job to do.

Sophomores benefited from an annual Student Council service project, Sophomore Orientation Day, designed to familiarize Sophomores with our campus. Students and parents recognized the Student Council's efforts in the successful College Night and Career Day programs. Student Council served the community with a true gesture of good and Christmas cheer by bringing joy to three families. For the entertainment of the students there were interesting assemblies, intramural sports, and powderpuff football—all the results of a hard-working Student Council dedicated to service in our school and community.

Personality and capable leadership are the ingredients that make Preston Cranford a good Student Council president. Here Preston presides over a regular meeting with his usual good humor and charm.

"Okay, this is how it's got to be!" are Charles Kenerley's words as he tells members of the council about his next money-making project.

Characterize the TSHS Student Council

To promote better relations between our high school and that of Lexington, Alan Jordan, council president, accepted Preston's invitation to speak to our student body. His moral support, Steve Rainey, seems to think his buddy is rather amusing.

A dance at the cafeteria sponsored by the council completes the exciting night of Bulldog Homecoming.

Judy Teer, Ronnie Crowder, Charles Kenerley, and Terri Price decorate TSHS Christmas tree.

The council sponsored a get-acquainted tea for the faculty in August.

Members Ronnie Crowder, Charles Kenerley, and Marian Dove pack gifts for the Love Fund, a Christmas project of the TSHS student body.

National Honor Society Perpetuates

Character, leadership, scholarship, and service are the standards by which eligible members of the Senior class are judged prior to the tapping ceremony of the Charles M. Lambeth Chapter of the National Honor Society. Each year the "Torch of Knowledge" is passed to a new group of students. It is the duty of the N.H.S. members to perpetuate the fine tradition established in past years.

Being a member of this society is a coveted honor among TSHS students "on the go", and the tapping ceremonies are moments of impressive beauty and suspense. But when students are singled out for the honor of membership, they don't rest on their laurels. Hard work characterizes this organization as it carries out its obligation to the student body through the student directory and tutoring service.

Upholding the characteristics of N.H.S. are the officers: Danny Clodfelter, President; Charles Kenerley, Vice President; Susan Allen, Historian; Marcelline Spainhour, Chaplain; Clavie Cranford, Treasurer; and Amelia Sisk, Secretary (seated).

The moment of truth arrives as Sandy Burnworth climaxes a time of suspense for Patsy Floyd by tapping her into the N.H.S.

Fine Tradition by Hard Work

Hard-working members of N.H.S. got together at a member's home to assemble the student directory. Here James Chandler, Jeanne Fesperman, Sandy Burnworth, and Brenda Hill laugh over the confusion created by the "assembly line" method.

An interesting and important business meeting captures and holds the attention of the NHS members.

Talent is no rarity at TSHS as Mike Styers proves with his outstanding ability in art. Here Mike is drawing the cover for the National Honor Society student directory.

To start an effective year for the NHS, the advisor, Mrs. Burrus, and the president, Danny Clodfelter, find interesting achievements of past years in the filing cabinet.

One of many contributions made by NHS members to our student body is the tutoring service. Members take time out of busy schedules to help as David Gibbs demonstrates by making algebra simple for Jack Wilcox and Buddy Owen.

The '68 GROWLER Staff Meets

The labors of the GROWLER staff bring joy to the students of TSHS. Everyone anxiously awaits that day when the GROWLER arrives in the spring.

Editor, Julia Burwell, and business manager, Susan Cushwa, give encouragement to staff efforts to produce a bigger and better GROWLER.

The staff raises money for the publication of the annual by selling advertisements to local businesses.

This proves to be hard work but also good experience in the business world.

This year is a first in many ways. It is the first year of having an assistant editor, Celia Hooper, and assistant business manager, Teresa Rimer, and sophomore helpers. It is the first year that classes have placed advertisements in the annual. But first, last, and unchanging is a desire to serve the TSHS students with the best annual ever.

A vital part of TSHS on the go is the sports program. Credit for recording the many sports of the Bulldogs goes to Sports Editors Carroll Rickard, Tom Myers, and Jeff Hege.

The hard-working GROWLER staff takes time out for play with a real "growler."

Without the calm efficiency and cheerful attitude of the advisor, Mrs. Cameron, the '68 GROWLER would have never made it to press.

Ellen Spoolman, Senior class editor; and Karen Pittman and Joyce Young, Underclass editors, became familiar with these carbon sheets in performing their duties as class editors.

Every page of the annual gives evidence of Mike Stuers' artistic talents.

the Challenge of Accurately Recording a Year at TSHS

From the first organizational meeting in August until the GROWLER goes to press, members keep up a driving pace motivated by a high objective—the final production of an annual that will capture an accurate, memorable picture of a year at TSHS. With the attainment of this goal, the staff will have presented to the student body a '68 GROWLER to be cherished by every proud TSHS student on the go for many years to come.

Patience is the word for Mr. Renfro as he tells Mike Styers to "watch the birdie" while he takes individual pictures.

Julia Burwell, editor, and Celia Hooper, assistant editor, are the two girls who were capable of handling the mammoth task of supervising the compiling of the '68 GROWLER.

Business manager, Susan Cushwa, and her assistant, Teresa Rimer, face the unenviable task of balancing the books and keeping up with the financial aspect of producing the '68 GROWLER.

Facts and Fun Staff Strives for On-the-Spot Coverage

One asset to the fine FACTS AND FUN Staff is the assistance of Mrs. Haney, advisor to the group shown here helping Kathy Kirk.

Eager sophomore girls are ready to be off and running for the annual Sadie Hawkins event. There's nothing like practice to keep one in top running form!

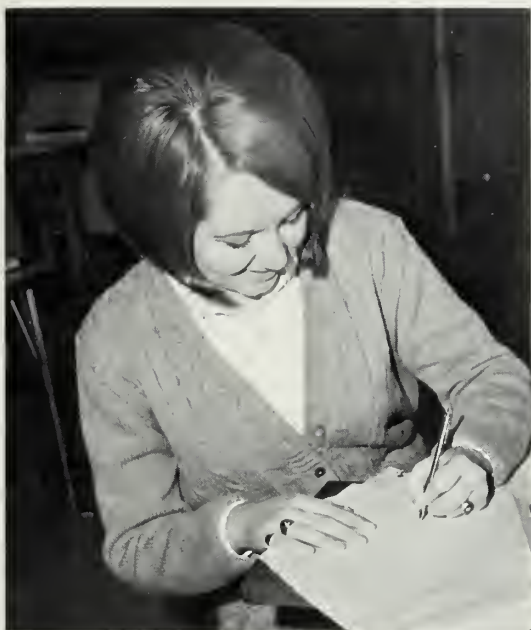

On-the-spot coverage of both the ordinary and extraordinary at TSHS is the job of the FACTS AND FUN Staff. Editor, Debby Coffee, and assistant editor, Sharon Fritts, work with a cooperative staff to put out one of the finest newspapers any school could publish. The staff's motto is "Your action becomes our news," which means that the life of TSHS is reflected in our newspaper. In the spring, the FACTS AND FUN staff creates a little action of its own by sponsoring Twirp Season, a week of vengeance for TSHS boys climaxed by the Sadie Hawkins Dance where Mr. and Miss Dogpatch—TSHS are chosen. Future reporters, photographers, cartoonists, and writers may well be expected to come out of this group due to the excellent experience of striving for the best possible news coverage.

"Seek and find," commands Debby as these hard-working staff members, Carolyn Kindley, Patsy Floyd, and Constance Baker, look for interesting ideas and set ups for FACTS AND FUN.

Debby Coffee, editor of the school newspaper, plans the layout and works long hours on each issue of FACTS AND FUN.

The success of the FACTS AND FUN rests partially in the hands of assistant editor, Sharon Fritts, and business manager, D. D. Ott.

Extensive reading and diligence will be rewarded for editor, Robert Adams, when he compiles the literary magazine, CHALENJ.

of Events at TSHS—a Formidable Task

Worthy mention must be given to advisor, Mrs. Haney. Being an English and journalism teacher, she is well-versed in what makes a good paper, and she guides the staff toward this achievement.

Good is not enough for TSHS because only the best will do, and FACTS AND FUN staff is the best, the best possible newspaper staff a high school can produce.

One important aspect of newspaper writing is communication with other schools for new ideas. Steve Parrish is exchange editor for FACTS AND FUN.

"Gentle persuasion" is D. D. Ott's motto as she convinces the reluctant Tom Myers that he really wants to buy a FACTS AND FUN subscription.

The Photography Habit Comes to TSHS

The click of the shutter and pop of a flash bulb are the sounds that fascinate this segment of the TSHS student body. Interest in photography not only can stimulate an interesting hobby but can lead to a worthwhile and challenging career. This is the first year for this special interest group, and they got off to a very good start under the direction of advisor, Mr. Mullen.

graphy and share interesting photographs and "trade secrets" with each other. To a layman the terminology used in these club meetings would be baffling, but to the up-and-coming photography experts they became everyday words. This is what the Photography Club accomplished in its first year at TSHS. Each year will see it becoming an important segment of TSHS on the go.

Absorbed in the study of new cameras are the Photographers' Club officers Tim Batten, President; Jimmy Petty, Vice President; Jim Hill, Secretary; and Danny McDonald, Treasurer.

Hey! What's going on in the back to distract the Photographers' Club so completely? Did someone drop his camera?

Shown holding the emblem of their organization are Tri-Hi-Y officers Carol Murphree, Treasurer; Jeanne Fesperman, Chaplain; Marcelline Spainhour, Secretary; Amelia Sisk, President; and Polly Collett, Vice President.

Tri-Hi-Y members must learn to be expert in applying make-up. Mrs. Fesperman, a local beautician, demonstrates on advisor, Mrs. Regan.

Tri-Hi-Y Strives to Maintain Standards of Excellence

"To create, maintain, and extend throughout the home, school, and community high standards of Christian character" is the motto of Tri-Hi-Y. This is one of the finest groups of girls one could ever hope to find. Consisting of some 150 TSHS girls, the Tri-Hi-Y strives to uphold its motto and does so, giving merit to the school. Presenting interesting and informative programs is one goal of Tri-Hi-Y. A handbell choir, a chalk-talk, and a panel of boys are just a few examples. In February Tri-Hi-Y sponsors a Sweetheart Dance. Due to the large enrollment, there are two Tri-Hi-Y's at TSHS: a Junior and Senior Tri-Hi-Y, and a separate organization for sophomores. Both are equally important to the life at TSHS and keep it on the go.

Sophomore officers, Susan Price, Vice President; Miriam Bowman, President; Jean Regan, Secretary; and Libby Britt, Treasurer, helped make the Thanksgiving project a success.

Susan Allen would like to see the Sweetheart dance be a great success; so, she's doing her part by cutting out valentines.

Debaters Organize as a Club and

What should the crime policy of the U.S. be? No, this is not a question being directed to law students. This is the question that confronted eager sophomore, wary junior, and confident senior debaters this year. As always, the task at first seemed insurmountable. The information was so over-whelming the students nearly despaired of ever debating with any degree of security. But security comes from familiarity, and through hard work these students did familiarize themselves with the topic. The result was another superior season under the direction of Coach (Mrs.) Allmond.

This year far more active as a club than ever before, the Debate Club had interesting programs, joined the Forensic League, received and accepted an invitation from Chapel Hill to send two debaters to give a demonstration debate in January, attended the Wake Forest Speech Festival in March, and successfully collected funds to send the squad to Athens for the highlight of the debate season, A Forensic Tournament.

"And you, Tom Dorety, will be first negative speaker whether you like it or not!" are chairman, Mike Stilwell's stern words.

Don't believe it! Susan's just trying to convince the sixth period seniors that they should take her along when they go to Athens.

Eager debaters Cathy Hall, Hugh Johnson, Mike Stilwell, and Jan Thomas are going to Wake Forest Speech Festival.

Brenda Hill is obviously thinking of all that money that will pass through her hands as Debate Club Treasurer. Susan Allen, Secretary; Charles Kenerley, Vice President; and Danny Clodfelter, President are unaware of her plans as they admire past awards.

Tackle the Crime Policy of the United States

RESOLVED: THAT CONGRESS SHOULD ESTABLISH UNIFORM REGULATIONS TO CONTROL CRIMINAL
INVESTIGATION PROCEDURES.

One of TSHS's Largest Clubs, LeCercle Francais, Takes on a Project—Penpals in Foreign Countries

The study of a foreign language is often difficult and tedious; many students fail to see the importance or value of speaking and understanding a foreign language. This year many sophomores, juniors, and seniors discovered the beauty of French through the French Club; so many, in fact, that the club had to be divided into a Junior-Senior Club and a Sophomore Club with different officers.

One of the main purposes of a French Club would be to understand the people who speak French as their native tongue, and this is what they set out to accomplish this year. One of the most fascinating hobbies is having a penpal, and the French Club began that project this year in an effort to live up to their purpose as a language club.

President Bob Hinkle wants to make sure we notice the bullfight as Jeanne Fesperman, Program Co-chairman; Celia Hooper, Treasurer; Brenda Hill, Program Co-chairman; and Debby Sykes, Vice President look on.

Spanish Club Programs Sparkle as Eager Members Favor Vacationing in Spain and Holding Real Bull Fights!

Under the direction of Mrs. Dolle, the Spanish Club strives to further the appreciation of this foreign language at TSHS. During club meetings, students enjoy the fellowship of Spanish-speaking comrades. The club often invites guests who have made visits to Spanish-speaking countries. These guests show slides of their trips, present new and interesting information about the countries, and answer the questions asked by interested TSHS students. This is not only educational but also enjoyable. This year, due to the large number of students taking Spanish, the club has been divided into two parts: Sophomore Spanish Club and Jr.-Sr. Spanish Club. Both groups strive to make their club an honor to the ideal of being "on the go" at TSHS.

Bob has just asked everyone in favor of speaking Spanish at all club meetings to raise his hand. Notice the response?

Robert Sink, club member, is teaching advisor, Mrs. Dolle how to operate a tape recorder.

CDE, Still Expanding, Provides Experience for Future

Members of DECA are, FRONT ROW: C. Hicks, Byerly, Highfill, Bean, Green, Todd, Hughes. SECOND ROW: Ballard, Payne, Cox, Skeen, S. Cranford, Wall, Thompson, Creech. THIRD ROW: A. Brooks, Southern, Blair, Weimer, Hill, Brewster, Long, M. Hicks, Threadgill. FOURTH ROW: Varner, T. Brooks, Caldwell, Ogle, Atwood, J. Cranford, Ball, Mounts, Walls, Mayton, Harrison.

CDE serves the community with service projects. Here Robert Colbert, James Cranford, and Ronnie Blair assemble March of Dimes banks to distribute in town.

This is the second successful year for the DECA chapter at TSHS. These students are really "on the go" as they attend regular classes for half of the school day and then leave our campus to spend the rest of the day in on-the-job training with local business firms. Supermarkets, jewel shops, and clothing stores are just a few of the various businesses opening their doors to give these high school students training for future careers.

This program is an invaluable asset for the students who are career-bound following graduation. For many years, our curriculum catered to the college-bound students, which is obviously unfair. Now, partially through DECA, our programs have followed the progressive trend toward education for the future.

President Chris Ball holds the attention of the members as they discuss plans for future projects and social plans.

The Vocational Industrial Clubs of America is a national organization of youth enrolled in secondary vocational industrial education. This includes students in trade, industrial, or technical education courses that are vocationally and occupationally oriented. VICA is the only national organization whose purpose is to serve vocational youth.

Mr. Everhart serves as advisor of this group, and his enthusiasm is catching. Students are becoming interested. In VICA's first year at TSHS, the membership was fifteen. Each year will see this group grow and become an increasingly important segment of TSHS's "on the go" student body.

in its First Year at TSHS

VICA members work for community businesses who co-operate in this educational endeavor. Here Terry Haltom performs one of his common tasks at Rex Plastics Co.

Mike Clinard, President; Jim Price, Vice President; Larry Sumner, Treasurer; and Danny Myers, Secretary are in the "line-up" as officers of VICA.

F.H.A. Teaches Appreciation of Household Arts

Miss Buie is advisor to one of the most interesting clubs for girls at TSHS. This club is the Future Homemakers of America, and through it the interested girls at TSHS learn the art of being a homemaker. There is more to cooking, sewing, and caring for a family than meets the eye. All members of FHA learn to appreciate the skills involved in these household responsibilities and the most modern and efficient methods of doing them. Experience is what counts in doing one's best at any task, and these girls receive the most in homemaking experience through FHA.

Officers are, Delores Baker, Vice President; Julia Bowers, Treasurer; Judy Younts, President; Judy Teer, Secretary; and Julia Burwell, Historian.

The highlight of the year's activities is the Fashion Show. Miss Buie is helping Debbie Darr get her seams straight for the big show.

For TSHS girls on the go, mastery of the art of ironing is a blessing as Gaye Southern demonstrates here.

Whether repairing the old ones or making new ones, Delores Baker is a whiz at the sewing machine thanks to the training she receives in home economics and FHA.

FTA officers are: Tammy Hedrick, Treasurer; Sharon Everhart, Secretary; Nancy Dickens, Vice President; and Beverly Harris, President.

Think of Having That Cute Little Girl for a Trigonometry Teacher!!

Within this organization are the future teachers of America. These students have been so impressed by the faculty of TSHS that they wish to learn more about teaching and perhaps become teachers in later years. They receive excellent experience by helping the teachers grade papers, by having interesting programs which apply to teaching, and mainly by following the fine examples set before them. Striving to learn more about the teaching profession is truly a worthwhile cause for an organization, and these students take full advantage of every method for learning how they can become better teachers. Despite the hard work required in learning the skills of the profession, the future teachers take time out from their project of serving as teachers' aids to have fun as a group.

Miss Williams enjoys an "apple for the teacher", one of F.T.A.'s projects.

Beverly Harris and Nancy Dickens get practice for the future in performing that most common of all teaching tasks, grading papers.

F.S.A. Prepares Its Members for Successful Careers

Mrs. Martin, advisor, shows officers of F.S.A. the proper way to use an adding machine. Pictured are Debbie Darr, Secretary; Sherry Ballard, Vice President; and Jeannie Helms, President. (Marilyn Caulder, Treasurer, not present when picture was made.)

Janice Skeen puts the finishing touches on a bulletin board depicting the good secretary.

On club day members, Sherry Ballard, Nell Myers, and Martha Sue Long, went before the student body to solicit members.

The rapid click of the typewriter and the swift motion of shorthand across a dictation pad are the symbols of this organization for the future. Future Secretaries prepares interested students for an important and successful career—that of a secretary. It is in this type of club that special interest in secretarial work is developed.

Through visits to local businesses, special programs on do's and don't's for secretaries, and study projects, future secretaries learn to perform the efficient, important duties that will be theirs in office work.

In a program on the "proper and improper secretary" Charlene Donovan and Janice Skeen dressed and acted to fit the parts.

Learning to use the card catalogue is a vital part of putting the library to good use. Jackie Hulon looks on as Debbie Cole demonstrates.

Library Club is "In the Know" About TSHS Library

Friendliness and willingness to help characterize the advisor, Mrs. Hughes.

Assisted by Jackie Hulon and Brenda Foster, Mrs. Hughes outlines the activities of library convention weekend.

Service is the word for the Library Club, a group partially responsible for keeping TSHS on the go. When faced with that research paper on history report, on the go students are stopped cold until they turn to the group of students who are really "in the know". Trained by our librarian, Mrs. Hughes, these thirty-one students have at their fingertips the information so vital to that A+ all students would like to have. Possessing the knowledge and glad to be of service, these club members forego their study halls to be of help in the library.

A fitting reward for these services rendered is the annual convention trip, the highlight of the Library Club year. Here club members learn how to better serve the students of TSHS on the go.

Library Club officers: Melvin Horne, Vice-President; Bonnie Allison, Treasurer; Linda Thompson, President; and Bonnie Overby, Secretary plan for a good year of activities.

New Buildings Require Attention of School Board

The chairman of Thomasville's school board, James Dorety, shows an active interest in our school system. By keeping up with the latest trends in education he has done much to improve Thomasville's city schools.

The Thomasville City School Board, which is the backbone of our school system, works conscientiously and diligently to maintain a smooth running system. Each member has worked with dedication and efficiency. We realize the worthwhile services and benefits that have been given to Thomasville Senior High School by them.

The School Board truly helps to make Thomasville a better place in which to live by providing for a system which meets the needs of each individual student. Their concern for the future helps greatly in making our school system a better tool of education. They are doing an excellent job of providing the Thomasville City Schools with efficient teachers and an excellent curriculum. The faith in education and the good judgement and uprightness of character of each member is greatly appreciated by the students and parents, as well as by the entire community. The members of the School Board are now busy planning many projects which deal directly with the Thomasville City School System. The largest project, however, about which they are concerned is the construction of new buildings at Thomasville Senior High School, as well as the improvement of roads and parking areas. The complete beautification of Thomasville Senior High School has become a major concern of all.

The members of the School Board are, SEATED: Mrs. Meredith Finch. STANDING: Dr. W. T. Bird, Aldeen Robbins, James Dorety, Chairman, Bob Powell.

Mrs. Joyce Gordon, Miss Katie Shuler, and Mrs. Elaine Hemphill stay busy keeping things going smoothly for Dr. Bird.

Dr. Bird proves by his actions his desire to make our schools the best in the state.

The Responsibilities of Dr. Bird Are Many

Dr. W. T. Bird, our superintendent, is definitely a man of many responsibilities. Thomasville Senior High School, as well as other schools in the Thomasville City School System, is extremely fortunate to have his guidance and leadership.

Dr. Bird's interest in the needs of our school has been proven many times. He not only directs the students and teachers in their school activities, but he is a personal friend who guides them on their upward way. Although burdened with the many responsibilities of keeping the schools running efficiently, he seems to find time to take a personal interest in all phases of our lives. Students at Thomasville Senior High are very indebted to Dr. Bird for the work he has done and for the work he is continuing to do. His contribution to the education of each individual student will never be forgotten.

Assisting Dr. Bird in carrying out his many duties and responsibilities are several able office workers, Miss Jewell Sink, office manager and treasurer; Mrs. Joyce Gordon, secretary; and Mrs. Elaine Hemphill, stenographer, work diligently as they contribute to the efficient running of the school system.

No school system is simple. Qualified workers are required to keep it from becoming disorderly and complicated. In any type of system, people must work together to keep things running smoothly. This is exactly what these office managers do. They are always willing to work for the improvement of our school system, and each of them is indispensable to the operation of the schools.

The summer school project of 1967 afforded a program of math and cultural enrichment, innovative in the state and especially in this area. Shown below are Miss Jewell Sink, ESEA Director in Thomasville; Mr. Robert Bowen, Audio-Visual Co-ordinator; and Mrs. Suzanne Day, Secretary.

Being secretary of Thomasville Senior High is not an easy job. Our secretary, Mrs. Jane Osborne, displays her cheerfulness to everyone she meets.

Office staff members are, Maureen Schneider, Martha Culler, Jeanne Fesperman, Linda Bowers, Pam Ashmore, Diana Bobo, Greta Day, Jackie Wilson, Kathy Hall, Judy Teer.

Mr. Miles Stresses High Ideals for TSHS Students

The golden doors of opportunities are opened each day in the field of academics to the students of Thomasville Senior High School. Mr. Miles heads this drive with the co-operation of an outstanding faculty. There have been many improvements brought about at our school in the past three years by Mr. Miles. He is continually looking ahead to find ways to meet the needs and problems of Senior High. He is genuinely interested in every student at Senior High and he has strived to produce a curriculum which meets the needs of college-bound students seeking commercial and vocational educations.

Mr. Miles is a man with ideas . . . the ability to communicate them . . . the power to inspire . . . a willingness to listen . . . and a dedication to serve. Through the guidance and interest of Mr. Miles, Thomasville Senior High School has become a school that not only her students are proud of, but also all the citizens of Thomasville.

Mr. Miles is a friend to all students at Senior High. His concern for our school and its students has caused TSHS to become a better place to study and learn.

P.T.A. Projects Seek to Serve a Growing School

Mr. Miles and the P.T.A. officers work together to make our school a better one. P.T.A. officers are: Mrs. Jerald Jasperse, President; Mr. L. E. Abbott, treasurer; Mrs. Marshall Stillwell, Secretary; Mr. Tom Allen, Vice-President.

Our P.T.A. President Mrs. Jerald Jasperse strived hard this year to present programs of interest to both students and parents.

The goal of the Thomasville High School Parent Teacher Association is to create a closer relationship between home and school. The P.T.A. also wants a better understanding between parents and teachers.

The first program of the year on October 19th with a panel composed of parents, teachers, and students discussing grading, promoted this understanding. The October meeting, "P.T.A. Studies the School Board" gave further insight as School Board Chairman James Dorsety and Superintendent of Schools, Dr. Bird, explained their duties and responsibilities. At the March meeting the P.T.A. had an open house of the new classrooms. A fashion show was planned for the April meeting. The P.T.A. has been paying for the student phone for several years and this year has added a private phone for the guidance office.

Mr. Hilton plays a double role at P.T.A. meetings as both teacher and parent.

At a P.T.A. meeting parents, teachers, and students discussed grading. Those participating were Delores Baker, Susan Allen, Mrs. Robert Martin, Mrs. Charles Fulp, Mr. Miles, Mrs. Hubert Coffee, Mrs. Wilson Hunt, Mr. Ken Huffman, and Gomer Powell.

History—A Study in Which

MR. SHADRICK
Mr. Shadrick is not only systematic in his method of teaching but also in his method for cleaning out desks.

"Yankee Dorety" and "Rebel Hunt" have it out over their views of the Civil War in U.S. History.

Through studies of the past, man can better understand himself and his country. Social Studies is invaluable in that it gives students an insight into governmental workings, a pride in their national heritage, and an inspiration for furthering of their knowledge of past and societies. Included in TSHS curriculum are courses in American and World History, economics and sociology and democracy in action. World History studies man from the beginning of time and stresses major trends of Western Civilization. U.S. history probes deep into the history of our own country and enriches upon what we were taught in the earlier grades. Sociology and Economics helps students become aware of problems in our society and economy. Democracy in Action deals with the biggest threat in today's world—that of communism.

of the World We Live

Sociology and Economics stimulates students in awareness of the social and economic conditions of the world in which they live.

Democracy in Action students learn the techniques and methods of "brainwashing" which can be a valuable asset in the future.

Projects such as the building of this computer help the study of world history come alive for sophomores.

MRS. BURRUS

"Now students please get your footnotes right," pleads Mrs. Burrus.

Vocabulary books are the crabgrass in the lawn of life.

And my interpretation of the book, The Rise and Fall of the Third Reich.

While acting out plays in English, students sometimes get out of control.

Students often fall asleep while reading "interesting" library books. Pleasant dreams, Mike?

The English department is the hub of the curriculum. Through it, the students strive to learn basic skills and to establish the fundamentals of good English. By studying literature, students establish contact with the world of material that is to be read, studied, and enjoyed. They are able to gain an insight and understanding of the world about them.

Realizing that it is impossible to "learn it all" does not prevent TSHS students from learning what they can. For the sophomores, "Julius Caesar" is probably the largest area of study. For the juniors, there is the first term paper, an event to be remembered for a long time. For seniors, there is the review of past English and the study of "Macbeth."

And I like Ultra-Brite toothpaste because it gives me . . .

"I may not have a good term paper, but the bibliography will be great!"

MISS WILLIAMS

"Okay, who copied someone's Spanish homework and turned it in for French?"

"Miss Williams, are you sure you have on a French tape?"

Français, Español Make Up

Now do you know what the word "lapin" means?

The prime objective of any foreign language being communication, French and Spanish students strive diligently to speak the languages and to obtain an accent similar to those on the A-L-M tapes. This requires much practice, and practice is exactly what students get during these classes.

Modern foreign language also seeks to include cultural knowledge and appreciation. Students are able to learn from the past while becoming better citizens of the world today. They are able to gain an appreciation of the life, the social and economic customs, and the civilization itself. French and Spanish are also important since they help in gaining a closer relationship with French and Spanish-speaking countries. They contribute in binding our countries closer together, thus helping us to understand the feelings and ideas which are their's.

MRS. DOLLE

Our Changing World

Biology students get their first chance at dissecting. Chemistry students learn how to conduct experiments and write lab reports. Physics students examine the laws of motion. These are all activities within the science department at Thomasville Senior High School. The study of science answers many questions and also raises many questions. The study of science is important in today's rapidly progressing society. Four science courses are offered at TSHS. They are biology, advanced biology, chemistry, and physics.

In sophomore biology, students study plant and animal life. Their study is aided by the use of microscopes and dissecting kits. Advanced biology is offered to students seriously interested in this field of science. Most juniors find their way into chemistry. These students are eager to begin mixing chemicals and taking notice of the changes which take place in their composition. Physics is another course offered to students who wish to further their knowledge in a specific area of science. The science courses taught at TSHS are stepping stones to science courses offered in college.

Is Ricky being sworn in or is this a physics experiment?

 (2) Geometry, Trigonometry, Calculus, Algebra,
 General Math, and Business Math
 (3) 406 students
 Prove: TSHS has a great math department.

Mathematics is a necessary and vital part of the complete education of Thomasville Senior High School students. Students of TSHS are fortunate to be able to participate in a well-developed program of mathematics. TSHS curriculum includes geometry, trigonometry, calculus, algebra, general math, and business math. General math students work hard at perfecting basic mathematic skills. A change in the math program has resulted in geometry being offered to both sophomores and juniors. In geometry, students first solve problems dealing with plane figures, and then they move on to solid figures. Geometry trains students to reason and think clearly. Trigonometry and calculus courses are offered to students interested in furthering their knowledge of mathematics. This is the first year that calculus has been offered at TSHS. These two courses help students to think and reason for themselves through difficult and complicated problems.

Math students benefit from the modern facilities provided by our new math lab.

All of Mrs. Fulp's Trig. students know that through team work anything can be accomplished.

Through C.D.E. Students Seek Training for the Future

Cooperative Distributive Education is in its second year at Thomasville Senior High School. This course proved to be very successful last year. Students engaged in this program spend three periods in the mornings taking required subjects. Fourth period is spent in distributive education class. After lunch, students go to their training jobs. This program is very beneficial to students interested in entering a vocation upon graduation.

Industrial Cooperative Training is a joint effort of schools and employers in business and industry to provide on-the-job training for high school seniors and juniors in occupational areas of their choice. It provides supervised occupational experiences enabling student-learners to acquire skills and to gain understanding of their chosen careers. Employers furnish on-the-job training to students under actual working conditions. The school furnishes a qualified co-ordinator to perform consultative services for employers and to correlate the technical related information in school with the student-learner's on-the-job training.

Journalism Students Learn to Convey Their Thoughts Effectively

Mrs. Haney and Debby Coffee spend many hours working hard to produce our school's newspaper.

Journalism students assist each other with creative writing.

This year, for the first time, there are two journalism classes—one for credit and one for non-credit. Both classes help in publishing the school newspaper, THE FACTS AND FUN. The papers are issued to the students each month with extra editions being issued on special occasions. The journalism students spend much time preparing the paper. It is certainly worth their time; however, for it is enjoyed by all students who read it.

Working on the FACTS AND FUN, however, is not all the journalism students do. They are kept busy with creative writing and with studying the techniques of journalism.

Mrs. Hughes, our librarian, is a great asset to our school. She assists the students in finding material for term papers, book reports, and for personal enjoyment as well. Her concern for the students has made her a friend to all those who seek her help.

Students Strive for Perfection in Business Education

"I dare you to come in here again without any typewriting paper!"

MRS. DORSETT

"Didn't I just change this ribbon yesterday?"

MRS. REGAN

"Oh come on, you can think of a better excuse than that."

Ouch! I hurt my semicolon finger! This is a likely statement to be made by a frustrated typing student. TSHS commercial courses are designed to meet the needs of business-minded students. The first few weeks in typing class can be very trying. After the keyboard has been mastered, students then begin working on speed and accuracy. Daily practice is essential if this goal of speed and accuracy is to be reached.

Other commercial courses offered besides typing I and II are book-keeping, office practice, shorthand, and basic business. Perfecting skills taught in commercial classes enable students to qualify for future office occupations. The varied sounds of typewriter keys clicking, pencils scratching out shorthand, students borrowing typing paper and hunting for erasers, and adding machines clacking, all prove that commercial students are busy.

Because of the usefulness of commercial subjects, many students work at least one commercial class into their schedules during their high school years.

"I know I do more erasing than typing."

MISS BUIE

"... and to make this cake nice and firm, I'll add a cup of starch."

MR. GRAHAM

"You know that's not the assignment I gave you."

"After Gomer does my mechanical drawing, who's going to do my English?"

Vocational Subjects Prove Beneficial to Many

Practical experience is gained in shop classes through designing and building. Emphasis is placed on woodworking. Hours of work go into woodworking projects before they are completed. The finished products, which range from tables to gun racks, are something which shop boys take great pride in. The shop boys also use their skills to help the students by constructing braces and items necessary for decorating for the Junior Senior Prom. Shop training is very valuable to those students planning to enter work in local furniture factories upon graduation.

Would-be architects find mechanical drawing challenging and fascinating. Serious study now on architectural techniques can result in a rewarding profession.

Home economics class builds a foundation for future home life. Cooking, sewing, and housecleaning skills are all taught. To enable students to develop successful community living, problems in relationships, management, home safety and improvement, food, clothing, and health are included in the course.

You won't be finding any rings around Miss Buie's bathtub!

MR. LITWIN
TSHS's "Music Man" cuts off the band with a familiar gesture.

Taking band often requires more than musical skill. Sometimes band members act as their own repairmen.

"Now do I go left or right?"

Consisting of 88 members, the band was, to say the least, kept busy during football season. The marching band presented halftime shows at each ballgame, and this hard work did not go unnoticed.

With the close of football season, the band turned their thought to the concert season. Still, however they were busy, and there was seldom a relaxed moment.

Under the direction of Miss Jeanne Montgomery, the chorus has provided much entertainment during the school year. The dedicated members of the chorus spend many hours practicing to reach perfection. Their singing is enjoyed by all. The annual Christmas program is one of the year's high-lights. It brings the spirit of Christmas through song to our school.

Baritones, tenors, and sopranos combine their voices and develop their talent by singing in quartets.

TSHS Courses Build Students

Through Guidance We Come to Understand Our Future Possibilities

"You've been accepted!"

Mrs. Clarice Rains, Supervisor of Education, helps to promote a unified purpose in education.

Seniors depend on Mrs. Schnopp to give them the guidance they need as they make many decisions concerning their future plans.

The guidance counselor Mrs. Rose Schnopp, carries much responsibility on her shoulders. She assists the students with their school problems and helps them in planning for the future. Her concern for the individual student is recognized by all students who make visits to her office.

Mrs. Jane Larabee, dietitian prepares menus for the students in the school system. Among her duties are ordering the food and paying for it.

This year, Mrs. Clarice Rains is serving as our new Supervisor of Education. Her job is to co-ordinate the art, spirit, and skills of our teachers, and to help promote a unified purpose in education among them.

And this college is perfectly located — right near a boys' school!

As dietitian of Thomasville City Schools, Mrs. Larabee is responsible for planning menus, purchasing food and supplies, and providing nutritional meals.

Inez is always friendly and cheerful to all students although busy with the responsibility of keeping our school clean.

If there is anything wrong at Senior High our janitor can fix it!

Keeping TSHS beautiful is a project which requires the interest and co-operation of all students.

TSHS Personnel Perform Their Tasks Most Efficiently

Preparing a hot lunch each day for the student body is a big job, and our cooks deserve to be complimented for their fine work.

Cheerleaders Promote the Outstanding Bulldog Spirit

Spirit — it starts with nine vivacious girls; it spreads rapidly to the entire student body — the result — a great school year!

TSHS cheerleaders sponsor a variety of projects during the year to keep the spirit high, but the actual work for the cheerleaders begins in the summer with long hours of practice.

Early in the summer, TSHS cheerleaders work toward perfecting familiar cheers and learning new ones. They work endlessly making original posters and signs to deck the halls of TSHS before each game. Cheerleaders are also faced with the task of planning pep rallies, skits, and projects to boost the spirit in all phases of school life.

It is certain that our cheerleaders exemplify the reputation that our student body has made because they are ON THE GO!

Chief cheerleader, Terri Price, did an excellent job in boosting the spirit at TSHS to make it the greatest year ever!

Our cheerleaders boost the spirit of both the Bulldog fans and the boys on the team as they show their enthusiasm during the game with Davie County.

TSHS cheerleaders are known far and wide for their pep and enthusiasm throughout the school year. Even during the long, tiring Christmas parade they never ceased to let onlookers know that "We're From Thomasville, Couldn't Be Prouder!"

That Keeps Our Dogs on the Go

"Heads it's Myrtle, tails it's OD!" TSHS cheerleaders take a break after their long, tedious hours of planning pep rallies to decide where they are going after graduation.

Debby Sykes, our Bulldog mascot, barks up some tremendous spirit at pep rallies and games.

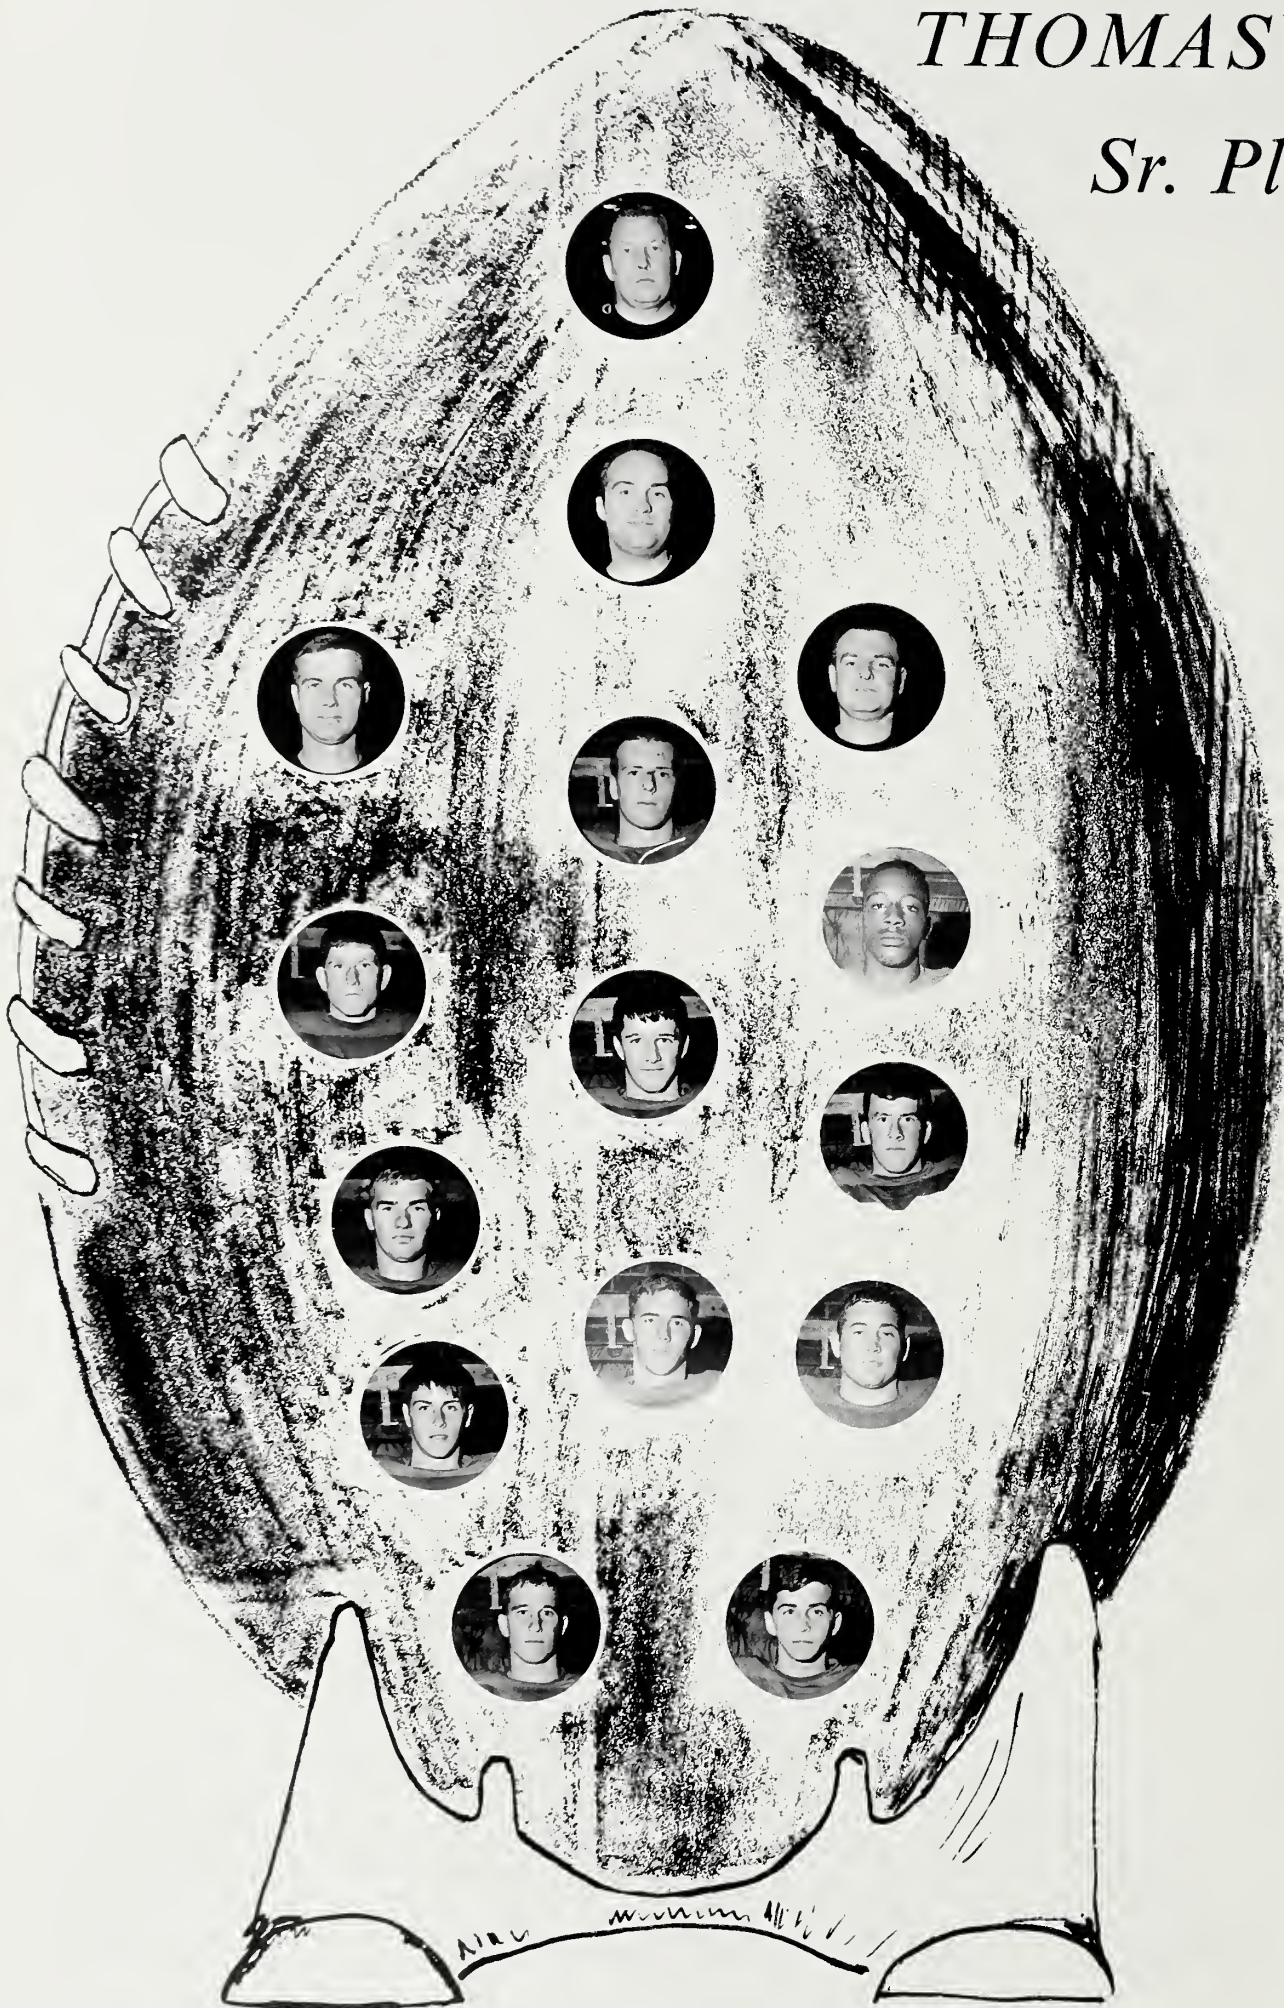

Along with the other TSHS cheerleaders, sophomore Kay Trantham puts her heart into every cheer making the pep at TSHS the greatest ever!

Power House of Victories

For a group of about forty boys, August was not a month of swimming and loafing, but it was a month of very hard work in preparation for the ensuing football season.

Starting the practice season on August 8, a week earlier than last year, the boys made the new Brown Finch Physical Education Building their residence for the next two weeks. Arising at 6:30 A.M., Monday through Saturday, they ate breakfast after which three hours of rugged practice was manipulated. They were then dismissed for lunch but were required to return to the gym at 2:00 P.M. for a skull session. Next on the agenda came another practice session of two hours. Supper was the most welcomed meal, but not much time could be wasted. The boys had to return to the gym once again by 7:30, and be ready for bed by 8:00.

Bulldogs sweat through the many hours of "light" practice which demonstrates the Bulldogs' beliefs of true dedication.

Determination is depicted by senior halfback Danny Hill as he churns for a few valuable yards.

Junior ace halfback Ronnie Miller leads a tenacious adversary and streaks toward payday.

Bulldogs Display Potent Offense

Robert Sanders and David Stepp go Page Pirate hunting as senior fullback Bruce Mills digs toward a much-wanted treasurer -- the winning touchdown.

Though it was a demanding and tiring schedule for the team to follow, it paved the way for a great football season at TSHS. Dedication -- the "password" at TSHS.

Coach George Cushwa is one of the persons mainly responsible for football's great success at TSHS. Coming from Roxboro nine years ago, he has established a tradition of winning and pride that carries over from each team to their successors.

The highly praised "defensive" unit of the TSHS Bulldogs results from the many hours Coach Wayne Shadrack has placed upon its priority. Through his instructions, the Thomasville defensive unit has become well-known for its tough-nosed goal line stands.

Responsible for turning out a championship line each year is Coach Larry Younts. A winning team must have a good line, and the fruits of Coach Younts' labor can be seen in past winning seasons.

Senior guard Gary Hill paves the way for Eddie Williamson's tremendous burst of speed in an important conference encounter.

Gene Monroe flings a superb block for quarterback David Gibbs on a very important fourth-down situation.

Running ace Eddie Williamson scores another touchdown against Kannapolis as the referee displays the prominent arch of victory.

and Malicious Defense

Coach David Day, also mainly junior varsity coach, has aided future varsity teams by instructing the younger boys about the main necessities in football.

Because of these four men, who are truly dedicated to their jobs as coaches, all boys who have worked under them have developed strong standards of sportsmanship, and have learned the importance of working toward a goal.

Everyone is visualizing the magnificent running moves of TSHS pride — Eddie Williamson.

"Bear" Leamon barrels for a couple of rugged yards against arch-rival Asheboro.

Our Dogs take a pause after a hard-fought battle.

“Dedication”—The Password of the Bulldogs

With senior halfback Eddie Williamson leading the team, the Bulldogs opened the 1967 season on a victorious note. They squeezed by Kings Mountain 7-0 in a very hard fought skirmish.

After an excellent performance against Kings Mountain, the Bulldogs smashed the Page Pirates 8-6. This was a very strong defensive game.

In the third game, after two consecutive wins, the Bulldogs dropped to the Blue Comets of Asheboro 22-6. It was a close game for three quarters, but finally the Blue Comets overcame the Bulldogs.

Perhaps one of the most important games of the year was when the Yellow Jackets of Lexington invaded the home of the Dogs. It was a hard-fought battle but finally the Jackets survived with a 27-6 pounding of the Dogs. As a result this game was decisive in determining the Conference Championship.

The Bulldogs gained revenge displaying the meaning of the word “determination” as they defeated the Statesville Greyhounds 7-6 for their third well-earned game of the year.

Albemarle invaded T’ville the next week only to receive a 14-6 defeat.

It was a perfect Friday night for the football game at Memorial Park as the high ranked Kannapolis Little Wonders invaded Bulldogland. In a game termed as one of Thomasville’s “greatest in history,” the Dogs literally slaughtered the Wonders 21-3.

After their eighth victory of the season, the thoroughly confident Bulldogs chewed up South Rowan 26-0. In T-ville’s game with Concord, the Spiders handed them their final defeat of the season 6-0. However, the Bulldogs bounced back to climax a rugged season with a 6-0 win over Salisbury Boyden. Overall the Bulldogs had a tremendous 7-3 season with a third place tie with Kannapolis in the South Piedmont Conference. Congratulations, Dogs! We’re proud of you!

Ronnie Miller “fights” his way through a staunch Kannapolis line which proved to be sufficient for a Bulldog victory, 21 - 3.

Senior defensive back Freddie Johnson is smothered by Kings Mountain invaders in the opening battle of the season.

Monsterman Roger Walser and “Spider” Steele “put the wood” to a lone Albemarle struggler as Billy Richardson moves in for the kill.

David Gibbs shows that TSHS quarterbacks would rather run than pass.

J.V.'s Prepare for Their Future as Mighty Bulldogs

TSHS junior varsity Bullpups, through countless hours of turmoil, exemplify themselves as true Bulldogs. Although the J.V.'s did not have a particularly astonishing season, their value to TSHS was more than exceeded by their contemporaries — the Bulldogs.

The J.V.'s played an important part in their role as Dog's. The J.V.'s each week were faced with the opposing team's offense and defense and would strangely maneuver it against the Varsity Dog's. It required great intestinal fortitude which gave the J.V.'s their start as true "Champions" in the eyes of the thankful student body.

Next year the J.V.'s will display their knowledge gained through experiences which shall once again prove fortuous. Thanks J.V.'s TSHS thinks you'all are tops!

J.V. Bulldogs get out of trouble as Scott Styers punts the ball to Page.

Steve Noblitt runs hard against the Smith line as tacklers try to bring him down.

Girls' Basketball Team Has

This year's girls' basketball team has worked hard and faithfully to bring exciting and rewarding games to the many spectators that so faithfully support them. The team has shown pride for its school through good sportsmanship at all times and every game.

All of the girls playing, whether they were returners or new members, worked solidly behind their new coach to produce a team TSHS could be proud of. It can truthfully be said that this team was an experienced one. There were seven girls returning from last year's squad, several of whom started on the team last year.

Co-captains Maureen Schneider and Martha Culler work hard with the new girls' basketball coach Miss D. D. Geter to produce a fine season.

Anxiously waiting for a rebound, Lady Bulldogs Sandy Williams and Yvonne Batten are ready to pounce on the ball at any minute.

All hands grab for the ball as Lady Bulldogs fight desperately for its possession.

TSHS Bulldogettes fight furiously for a loose ball against two Davie County invaders.

“Action-Packed” Season

The girls practiced strenuously everyday to develop their skills in passing, dribbling, shooting, and guarding. They displayed their skills in every game and brought the team through a fine season of basketball.

The Lady Bulldogs certainly lacked nothing in determination and perseverance. Through real teamwork and sportsmanship they displayed that true “Bulldog Spirit” that makes for a successful season.

Girls' basketball managers are Jackie Wilson and Brenda Allen.

Despite efforts of three Davie players, Yvonne Batten (44) successfully gets off her shot.

Pam Brinkley entertains the Statesville Greyhounds with jumping-jacks, while she blocks a shot.

Richard Slack tries to get off a shot against Davie County as Tim Russell and David Gibbs get ready to rebound.

Tom Myers and Randall Tysinger fight for the rebound against Mt. Airy.

Steve Burroughs carries out his managing duties for the boys' basketball team.

Bold Bulldog Work

Members of the Boys' Varsity team are Sam Craven, Kemp Harvey, Joe Hall, David Gibbs, Richard Slack, Tom Myers, James Steele, Randall Tysinger, Tim Russell, Tommy Baity, Bruce Mills, Mike Rickard, Steve Noblitt.

Jim Steele and Richard Slack try to get the rebound against Davie County.

Tom Myers gets rebound as Tim Russell and Joe Hall look on in action against Mt. Airy.

for an Exciting, Successful Season

This year, guided by Coach Wayne Shadrick, the new varsity coach, the Bulldogs proved to be a team which could be troublesome to the other teams in our conference. Experience, steady improvement, and many tiring hours of practice were factors in this year's record. As the Bulldogs hit the hardwood, they became a team which gave a hundred percent effort in order to give their fans an exciting season. Perfecting different shots and working on fundamentals helped each player develop a skill and loyalty to basketball. This loyalty helped the Bulldogs set their goals for a successful season, the conference tournament, and a possible South Piedmont Conference Championship.

The players and coach worked together not only to win, but to display good sportsmanship. The future looks promising for other Bulldog teams, if they display the determination and spirit shown by this year's varsity team.

Jim Steele fights against Davie County players to get rebound.

Bulldogs show teamwork as many players fight for the possession of the ball.

J.V.'s Display Stubborn Determination

Gerry Crowder gets rebound as Concord players look on.

The junior varsity team, composed of sophomore and juniors, practiced tirelessly to develop talents needed in basketball. These talents and the directions of Coach Larry Younts boosted the team to an excellent season.

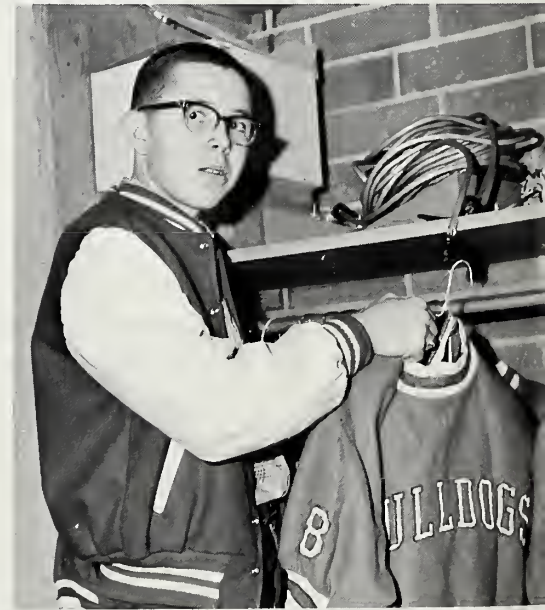

The experience gained by these boys will prove to be very valuable to the varsity team next year. Fighting for rebounds and retrieving the loose balls proved the Bullpups determination each hard-fought battle. Trying to not only win, but also to spread and display sportsmanship was a prominent characteristic of the J.V.'s. The team worked well together, gained self-satisfaction with each victory, and obtained valuable skills for future varsity action.

Bullpups work hard to gain possession of the rebound.

Dolan Tucker carries out his duties as J.V. manager.

Track Team is Heavy Threat in SPC

Senior Danny Hill demonstrates the winning form called for in the stiff competition of track meets.

Eddie Williamson knows that practice not only makes perfect, but helps build speed in running the 100 yard dash.

Wind sprints help Seniors Max Rollins, Gomer Powell, Roger Walser, and Randall Frisbee build strong endurance for spring competition.

Junior James Byrd gets in position to put the discus into high flight.

When winter comes to an end the boys of the TSHS track team begin to hustle about preparing for the oncoming meets. During track season the team heads for "Death Valley" to sweat out their afternoons in rugged practice in preparation for coming conference encounters.

There are many events in track, each different and very exciting. The discus and shot putt display individual strength; the high jump and broad jump demand a combination of speed and agility; while the running events call on one's endurance.

It is evident that the 1968 track season will be both exciting and successful for TSHS.

Grapplers Pound Out Many Victories

Tri-captains Charles Kenerley, Eddie Williamson, and Ronnie Miller work with Coach Jennings Withers to produce a championship team.

Wrestling at TSHS has come a long way since it started ten years ago. Our team has won one state championship, two district championships, and many individual championships. One of the prime reasons our team has been so successful in the past is because it has one of the finest wrestling coaches in the state — Coach Jennings Withers.

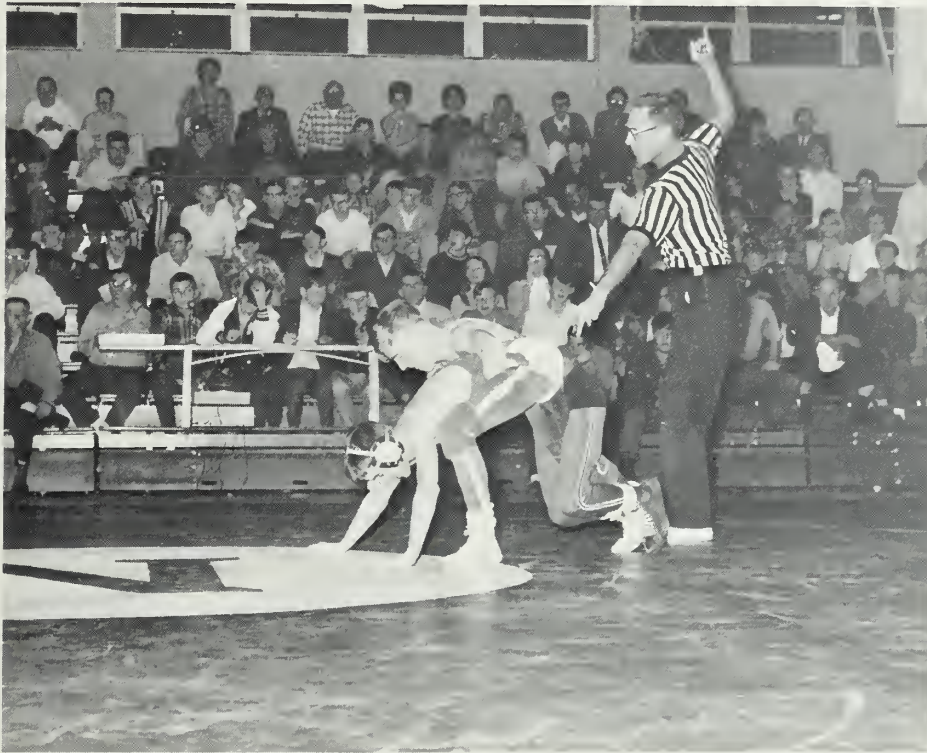

A wrestler must be in superb physical and mental condition in order to participate in the arduous minute matches. Speed, skill, and endurance are the three main goals of ambitious wrestlers; and though strength is a valuable asset, it is usually the skilled matman that wins. Being an individual sport, wrestling builds great self-confidence.

Jimmy Hall displays his tremendous ability to "get the job done" as he applies the pressure to Jim Burrus.

for TSHS in Race for WNCHSAA Title

Mike "Stud" Turner is breaking his North Rowan opponent down as he prepares for a pin.

This year's team will have gained experience, because only two or three of the total thirteen positions will have to be filled by sophomores. Four seniors will be returning in the capacity of leaders; they include: Charles Kenerley, Eddie Williamson, Darrell Miller, and Gary Everhart. Also seven juniors will hit the mats again along with several starting sophomores. Coach

Withers is expecting one of his better seasons due to the experience of the returning grapplers.

During the months of December, January, and February, the grapplers have fifteen matches which explicitly define a strenuous season. They will participate in the WNCHSAA tournament which will be held during the latter part of February in Salisbury.

Eddie Williamson and Ronnie Miller go over some standing moves during practice before an important match.

Bobby Joe Bates illustrates the result of hard work and determination through endless grinding matches.

Rodney Thrift tries a switch on Jimmy Jackson in practicing for the coming challenge match.

Bobby Joe Bates battles hard to overcome a North Rowan opponent.

Wrestlers Provide Many Exciting Matches for TSHS

Coach Withers confers with tri-captain Ronnie Miller before Miller goes on to the mat against a stiff opponent.

Jim Burrus is moving back for an ankle from referee's position just as the whistle blows.

TSHS Baseball Team Scores in Ability

As spring comes to Thomasville, the Bulldog nine take to the new field behind the Brown Finch Memorial Gymnasium. Every afternoon such sounds as the crack of the bat, the swish of the ball, and the pop of the glove can be heard echoing from the practice field.

Under the leadership of a well-trained coach, the team learns the techniques of good hitting, precise pitching, and expert fielding, which together with co-operation and teamwork, provide the Bulldogs with the ability to compete for the SPC title.

Individual work is an essential part of each team victory. Coach Shadrick realizes this as he instructs Kemp Harvey in batting procedure.

Tim Russell demonstrates how to put the tag on a sliding player in a tight squeeze.

Tennis Team Provides Strong Net Competition

Senior Clavie Cranford prepares himself to meet the ball with a powerful backhand.

When the warm spring weather approaches Thomasville Senior High, the netmen head for Memorial Park Stadium to practice for their future matches.

Every afternoon the tennis team goes through its various drills to build the skills needed by a winning team. Strong serves are practiced faithfully, while emphasis is also placed on learning to hit the ball with clean, hard strokes. Each player works on his own speed, which enables him to move from place to place with quick reactions. This year, TSHS has thirteen experienced men who have proved their ability in previous matches and will definitely strengthen the team.

With a confident smile, Brian Jasperse gets ready to slam the ball for a serve in practice.

The boys do take their tennis seriously, but there is always time for a little clowning around. Steve Noblitt shows the winning form for net jumping.

Powerful Golf Team Drives for Perfection

For some members of the golf team scores can prove to be exasperating!

Under the direction of Coach David Day, the TSHS golfers ardently practiced each day at the Colonial Country Club. Coach Day and Coke Trimmal, the pro at Colonial, taught the boys the finer points of the game and as time progressed and experience increased, the improvement in their scores was evident. At a point decided by Coach Day, four golfers were selected to represent TSHS in the matches; the pertinent selection of these players was the mark of willingness and desire and was the apex of glory for them — a job well done!

With thirteen of fifteen golfers returning from last year, the ensuing season is expected to fluctuate with the seeds of victory.

Ronnie Crowder and Rusty Ferguson, two returning lettermen, are relied upon heavily for superb performances this season. With a valiant team effort this season, Coach Day will wholeheartedly endeavor to bring victory once again to TSHS golfers.

The TSHS Golf team for 1968: Austin Fine, Keith Hillard, Jimmy Hall, Jim Miles, Tom Dorety, Rusty Ferguson, Ronnie Crowder, Bobby Hinkle, Lanny Davis, Terry Tysinger, Mike Daniels.

Rusty Ferguson demonstrates that old "Heg's" touch even on the golf course!

Often TSHS golfers run out of tees, but this doesn't stop them. They always devise their own methods as Tom Dorety does in a very touchy match.

“Top Dogs” Form Monogram

Girls' Monogram Club members are proud of the blazers they bought this year.

The Girls Monogram Club meets twice a month under the leadership of Mrs. James Helvey. Much work has been done this year; the main job was the writing of a new constitution.

Any girl who has lettered in basketball or cheerleading at TSHS is entitled to membership.

This year's projects are varied. We now have pretty black blazers for our letters. Our members work hard and faithfully making posters for ballgames and promoting school spirit at all times.

Good Sportsmanship is the standard for our clubs members.

Officers of the TSHS Girls' Monogram Club are: Julia Burwell, Vice-President; Martha Culler, President; Betty Lou Thompson, Treasurer; Jan Thomas, Secretary.

Clubs at TSHS

The Boys' Monogram Club of TSHS is back in the swing. This year it is bigger and better than ever.

Officers were nominated and elected by the membership. Elected were Bruce Mills, President; David Gibbs, Vice-President; Tim Russell, Secretary; Steve McCulloch, Treasurer; and Eddie Williamson, Sargeant-at-Arms.

Officers of the Boys' Monogram Club are Bruce Mills, President; David Gibbs, Vice-President; Eddie Williamson, Sargeant-at-Arms; Steve McCulloch, Secretary-Treasurer.

The only requirement for membership is a varsity letter in any sport.

Many projects have been discussed by the club. A committee has been appointed to write a new constitution and another committee compiles records and keeps a scrapbook of activities.

The Boys' Monogram Club is on the go!

George Lamb and Brian Jasperse discuss plans sponsored by the Boys' Monogram Club.

SENIOR CLASS

THE CLASS OF '68 is filled with enthusiasm to serve and do their part in improving the school. Their enthusiasm was characterized by the annual Love Fund Drive.

It has been a successful year at TSHS; one that will be long remembered as each SENIOR ventures on his separate path to meet the challenges of the future.

The Class of '68 has that "do-or-die" Dixie spirit that makes them sincerely believe that the "South will rise again" with the help of the TSHS Bulldogs!

1967-68 . . . A year of energy, effort, and enlightenment at Thomasville Senior High School. Each class is unique in itself, with a personality of its own. For the new Sophomores, who quickly became a part of the school, life at TSHS enabled them to accept more responsibility. They learned they must think for themselves and be on their own. For the Juniors, this was a year of hard work, not only academically, but as future leaders of TSHS. The year seems to speed by, and they can hardly believe they are finally to become Seniors. For the Seniors this was truly a year of laughter, tears, and plans for the future. As spring approaches they realize they have reached the point of no return. With June, comes the finality of graduation and each Senior walks across the campus for the last time as a proud student of Thomasville Senior High School.

1967-68 Year of

Senior boys display their spirit and promote this enthusiasm throughout the halls of TSHS every day.

Students enjoy fellowship between cheers at pep rallies.

Class time, game time, anytime, even lunch time, is spirit time for TSHS!

Energy, Effort, and Enlightenment at TSHS

Early morning pep rallies sponsored by the Baby Huey Club of the Class of '68 sparked interest for the big games.

TSHS—this symbol stands for more than Thomasville Senior High School. It also stands for Thomasville Students Have Spirit! TSHS students show spirit in the classroom, spirit in club activities, spirit in sports, and spirit in their friendly relations with each other. They have that desire to reach only the top in everything they do. This "ON THE GO" student body lives and thrives on enthusiasm and pride combined into that powerful moving force which unites all three classes — SPIRIT!

Learning, living, and laughing together for 180 days out of each year, students grow and mature in ways that are not only physical. They learn the importance of getting along with fellow students, helping each other when the going gets rough, and all the while building a strong character based on many school experiences.

These are the molding years — full of experiences that make us face life realistically. During these trying high school years there must be something to fall back on when things seem to be going wrong. What can we rely on? It is as simple as saying TSHS—Thomasville Students have Spirit! Win or lose we will be the winners in the end for the students of Thomasville Senior High School know that the old “Bulldog Spirit” will never let them down!

Alone, as well as in groups, the students of Thomasville Senior High School are united in heart as shown by their fellowship.

This year we have been made aware of the importance of class unity and student body spirit. We have learned to appreciate these things because they play a large part in growing up throughout our high school years. I only hope the 1968 GROWLER has captured this "ON THE GO" Bulldog spirit that exists in the leaders, faculty, and entire student body of Thomasville Senior High School.

I wish to give special thanks to those "ON THE GO" people who have made the 1968 GROWLER possible. . .

Mr. Miles, faculty, and student body for their cooperation.

Mrs. Joanne Cameron, our advisor, for the patience she has shown during the many trying times of our publishing the GROWLER and in her earnest support of the fun and fellowship of the staff.

Lester Henley and Tim Batten who illustrated their support by their fine photographs; and Mr. Bill Renfro who represented Delmar Studios.

Mr. Frank Fleming, consultant from Delmar, who spent many hours lending suggestions and altering his schedule when problems arose.

The staff members for making this 1968 GROWLER a reality.

Ann Landers, for selecting our Miss Thomasville Senior High.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Van Landingham whose home was used for some "special" pictures.

Thomasville Furniture Industries, for allowing us the use of their showroom for photographs.

The businesses and manufacturers, whose advertising made possible the funds for the GROWLER.

And, finally, my family and friends for their understanding, their optimism, and for listening.
